A Little Help From Above - Saralee Rosenberg
A LITTLE HELP FROM ABOVE explores the enduring link between mothers, daughters, and sisters, and asks the age-old question: who are the people in my life and what was God thinking when he threw us together. It is a poignant and entertaining ride that stops exactly where it's supposed to. Home sweet home.

A Little Help From Above by Saralee Rosenberg - Goodreads

A little help from above is told in the perspective of Shelby and Lauren's mother, but follows their lives closely. I have mixed feelings about this book, it is not something I usually read and I also found the cover to be very deceptive, I thought it would be a heart warming Christmas story, not so much.

A LITTLE HELP FROM ABOVE is a whimsical look at serious modern day women s issues. Shelby is an interesting character though she levetches too much while the strong support cast deals with too many different crises so that none fully retain audience empathy. In her debut, Saralee Rosenberg shows plenty of talent with a plot that will leave her audience wanting similar tales (with less
