Friends Forever: A Novel: Danielle Steel: 9780440245247 ...

Also the phrase friends forever implies that they will be friends for a long time, but yet by the end of the book most of the friends have died off at very young ages. It was a very depressing book to read, not much character development, I found it difficult to keep track of what parents and siblings belonged to what child. I wouldn't call it the worst book I've read, it was a very quick read. Friends Forever: A Novel, Book by Danielle Steel (Mass ...

Friends Forever by Danielle Steel (2012, Hardcover) I was very disappointed by Friends Forever. Though it was an easy read, it was unbelievably depressing, with an utmost pessimistic view on life. I haven't read one of her books quite as depressing since A Good Woman, which reminds me of Friends Forever in that throughout each book, I found myself anxiously awaiting for things to start turning
