The belief that God became the Universe is a theological doctrine that has been developed several times historically, and holds that the creator of the universe actually became the universe. Historically, for versions of this theory where God has ceased to exist or to act as a separate and conscious entity, some have used the term pandeism, which combines aspects of pantheism and deism, to

At the age of 35 I found myself, a committed atheist, sitting in an evangelical church service with my wife. I was a tenured detective at a local police agency in Los Angeles County, and I was known as a skeptic by those few believing coworkers who dared to engage me on issues related to the existence of God.

In this belief system the entire universe and everything within it, is divine ie God. God is NOT a separate entity. God IS everything literally. This is known as pantheism.

The purpose of these religions was that through life's journeys and lessons you would become aware of the illusion of separation and come to know and understand your own divinity and experience mystical union with all

God and the Universe of Faiths 50 It suggests, as I have already mentioned, a view of the christian ethic as the practical corollary of the distinctively christian vision of the world. Taking a hint from the modern dispositional analysis of belief we may say that to experience the world as having a certain character is, among other things, to be in a dispositional state to live in it in the
