Indigenous Cultures and Globalization - ETEC 510

Many indigenous cultures are taking advantage of globalization and technology in order to promote and share their culture with the rest of the world. One example of this in Canada is the foundation of the Aboriginal Peoples Television Network (APTN).

Facts about Indigenous culture and history you should know ...

One of the most common mistakes people make when dealing with the Indigenous peoples is thinking that it is a single cultural group. While they do share some traits, such as a deep connection to the land and to nature, different groups have different languages, culture, histories, beliefs, and identity.
