Hey, our old friend Justice Hall is on special e-book offer now, $2.99 from my friendly neighborhood Bookshop or Nook or Kindle. The sun did not shine on Justice Hall so much as Justice Hall called forth the sun's rays to fall at such and such an angle.

Justice Hall \(Mary Russell, #6\) by Laurie R. King - Goodreads

Laurie R. King paints it so well that I could picture each and every room and Justice Hall's gardens. Described right after WWI one can see the bustling servants and snippets of a posh life that one was.

Justice Hall - Laurie R. King

In my opinion Justice Hall is a great novel, not only portraying in a stunningly vivid way the injustice of executions for so-called cowardice, but holding up a mirror to its time in history. It makes a strong statement about the consequences of injustice.

Justice Hall Laurie R. King. Posted on February 9, 2012 by stewartry. Beautiful. Just beautiful. In the combined desire to reread the Holmes/Russell series and still hurry to get to Pirate King, I skipped two books: Letter of Mary I did not have, and O Jerusalem was a departure of setting and plotline, and took place a step out of time in the series, so that I felt safe leaving it out for
