LINNETTE, THE LIONESS by Lavinia Kent is an exciting historical romance set in Regency England. It is written with depth and details. The characters are enchanting and engaging. It is the second of the "Duchesses of London" series, but can be read as a stand alone. See "Kathryn The Kitten". This is the story of Linnette, the Dowager Duchess of Doveshire and James, the new Duke of Doveshire. Their

Regency England just got real(ity)Episode 2: The One with the Fake BabyRumors abound everyone has heard that Linnette, the Dowager Duchess of Doveshire is pregnant. Beautiful, young, with more freedom than any respectable woman should want, Linnette is no stranger to a little gossip. But her Linnette, The Lioness: The Real Duchesses of London ...

Lavinia Kent's second story in the Real Duchesses of London series, Linnette the Lioness, is a terrific reunion story. Kent manages to write a satisfying love story as well as to further the interaction among the "Real Duchesses." I totally disagree about what the other reviewer said about a "cringeworthy sex scene." I thought all the love scenes were inventive and creative and could not be
