One last Look is an evocation of the sensually exotic, and there is something about its texture that wafts through the pages as luxurious and heady as the scent of Hermes' Un Jardin Apres La Mousse. Both imaginary tales take us on a journey that one could call spiritual, awakening, hard, filled with meaning, and about personal enlightenment.

Moore's tale tweaks our desire to look into the

Review: One Last Look by Susanna Moore - the Guardian

One Last Look is a strange departure for Susanna Moore. Although it is beautifully researched and elegantly written, this excursion into colonial India has a feeling of lassitude about it. Most
