Politics: An Islamic Perspective - HUM Journals

Abdul Rashid Moten Politics: An Islamic Perspective 29 science 'a mountain of data surrounding a vacuum') There are many who question the wisdom of defining politics, arguing that its definition is contextually determined. They adhere to the view that politics is what the political scientists say it is, a position well summarized in Bernard Crick's trite comment that 'politics is politics'.³

Political Science: An Islamic Perspective :: Reviewed by ...

Looking around the Muslim world and finding a "horrifying picture," Moten concludes that the problem lies in Muslim efforts to imitate the West. Of all the West's misguided ways, he deems secularism the worst. In its stead, Moten proposes an Islamically-based political program that builds on such
