Things 20-somethings will notice re-reading the Harry

When the Harry Potter books were first released, a lot of children read the books in tandem with Harry, growing up as he did. But what happens when you re-read the stories once you've grown up?

Rereading Harry Potter and Losing Some of the Magic Harry Potter was the first real book I had ever read. Sure, I had read small stories and some light chapter books, but this marked the beginning of my love for literature. I was five, and I saw the eye-catching cover of The Prisoner of Azkaban on a shelf in a Barnes and Noble.
