Reading Epic: An Introduction to the Ancient Narratives by ...

For Greece and Rome this is the simplest explanation: it is a long narrative written in hexameters (or a comparable vernacular measure) which concentrates either on the fortunes of a great hero or perhaps a great civilization and the interactions of this hero and his civilization with the gods (Merchant 1971: vii).

Epic: The Genre, Its Characteristics | First Year Foundation

Speculation concerning the origins of the Homeric epic (thus the body of classical epic) is not strictly necessary for a book which concentrates on reading epic. The topic is, however, of considerable interest. It can cast light on the thematic and descriptive strata onto which Homer and his successors built their epics.
