Resetting the stage : public theatre between the market and democracy ...

Dragan Klaic was a well-respected theatre scholar and cultural analyst. In his versatile career, he was professor and lecturer at universities in Amsterdam, Belgrade, Bologna, Budapest, Istanbul and Leiden, and held various positions in numerous institutions and foundations worldwide - from director to board member or permanent fellow.

Resetting the Stage: Public theatre between the market and democracy ...

Resetting the Stage may be Klaic's final book but for those working in public theatre and other publicly funded arts organisations it provides a good introduction to his ideas. More importantly, it encourages a way of thinking about arts practice and funding that we need to champion in the current economic climate as Klaic himself did for more than 40 years.
