Saboteur (Star Wars: Darth Maul, #1) by James Luceno

Saboteur is a case of more is more. The story has poor development and the overall result of the plot meaningless. Darth Maul is treated as a menial henchman who does and says literally nothing, despite being advertised as the stories' main event.

Saboteur: Star Wars Legends (Darth Maul) (Short Story) by ...

PROS : Darth Maul is one of the coolest Star Wars characters ever. The story is short, so the author gets right to the point. The scenes with Darth Sidious were excellent. This is a great introduction to the relationship between Sidious and the Trade Federation. CONS : There was very little lightsaber action. Some of the character development in the first chapter that didn't feel right to me
