Samurai Game (Ghostwalkers, #10) by Christine Feehan

I am a long time fan of Christine Feehan's GhostWalker series and have been waiting with bated breath for Samurai Game. This is a paranormal series but the GhostWalker series is not about ghosts. GhostWalkers are a secret group of Super Soldiers created by a brilliant scientist, Dr. Peter Whitney, who ends up going a little mad. They are humans born with extra sensory skills who have Samurai Game (GhostWalker Series #10) by Christine Feehan ...

I finished Samurai Game and the author Christine Feehan did another outstanding job. She portrayed Thorn aka Azami as both vulnerable and a kick ass heroine. She creates such multi dimensional characters, I adore them. What is also important to me is the great sense of family that is apparant in all of her stories. Sam was a caring hero but he stood his ground when Thorn thought she was too

Samurai Game itself was a wonderful addition. Thorn is a strong, smart heroine who doesn't sit around waiting for the hero to rescue her. Nor does she rush headlong into danger without the resources to get herself out. She is in parts strong and ruthless, caring and serene. Sam is a soldier through and through, with a man's need to protect his woman, but with enough respect for her
