Shattered Magic (Chronicles of Arandal, #2) by Rebecca York

With Shattered Magic, I feel that the length was the main reason why I can only give it 3 stars. The shorter format made me feel that a lot of the typical build up (for romance) was absent. The faster pace works with some novellas, but not this one.

Sure, it was fun seeing both of them battle dragons, and the twist about Rowan's magic was lovely, but in the end, it wasn't enough for me. Had there been more time for the characters to actually get to know each other, or even for there to be more history given between their cultures, I think I could have more easily embraced their romance, but as it was, I was left feeling rather dissatisfied.
