history The first written mention of Martin is from 1284. Martin developed into the yeoman town, which depended on the Sklabi a estate and the family of R vay.

The Begining | Slovakia

The Bronze Age in Slovakia went through three stages of development, which stretched from 2000-800 BCE. The most well-known culture of that era was the funeral culture of the Carpathians and that of the middle Danube. During the later Neolithic Age, a considerable growth in cultural regions took place in Slovakia. This phenomena was linked to a large development in local copper manufacturing.
