Final part of S.M. Stirling's trilogy of books that present an alternate story than that told in T3: Rise of the Machines and Terminator: Salvation. Unlike the previous two entries (T2: Infiltrator and T2: Rising Storm), this is not so much the one-on-one of the Connors versus a single Terminator, but is rather humanity versus

T2: The Future War is the finest of the three T2 novels by S.M. Stirling. I fully concur with Mr. M. Billman's review of this book (see his review below on Amazon). This whole series expertly "tells" the story of the events leading up to Judgment Day and all the details of the war with the machines and the main characters of the T1 and T2 movies. Unlike other authors, Stirling doesn't go off Amazon.ca:Customer reviews: T2: The Future War "T2 The Future" is the third book by S.M. Stirling. This books starts right before Judgement Day though years of battling the Skynet. While this might have be good idea for the third terminator movie, it just didn't work well for this series. The writer left many details that would have explain the action of his characters. I believe that Mr. Stirling could have given the characters more
