The Divine Right of Capital by Marjorie Kelly: A Summary

Marjorie Kelly's The Divine Right of Capital is one of those mind-bending books that deserves to be read by a large audience. It tells a behind-the-scenes story of capitalism that we don't often hear; one that shows how our preoccupation with shareholder primacy distorts capitalism in ways that generate serious harm for society and the planet.

Marjorie Kelly: Divine Right of Capital

In The Divine Right of Capital, Kelly argues that this corporate design is becoming outmoded. She articulates the six principles of economic aristocracy on which corporations are now built and proposes six principles of economic democracy, showing how in beginning ways these principles are already at work in a variety of projects.

The Divine Right of Capital PDF | Marjorie Kelly

In The Divine Right of Capital, Marjorie Kelly has written a thoughtful, somewhat revolutionary book questioning the basic paradigm of corporate capital: maximizing shareholders earnings. She compares stockholders who own corporate wealth to feudal European aristocracy as she contends that the current system bestows riches on owners - who add little value to the company - while the "The Divine Right of Capital" by Kelly, Marjorie - Tikkan ...
