The Grenadillo Box by Janet Gleeson - Defrosting Cold Cases

The Grenadillo Box by Janet Gleeson is a fantastic read. The writing pace is fast. The book is rich in details about the many artfully decorated furniture pieces. The characters are likeable even though at the end you feel like dunking Nathaniel's head in a bucket of ice water. However, you still root for him as he crawls towards the conclusion.

The Grenadillo Box by Janet Gleeson - Goodreads
"The Grenadillo Box" was a really well done historical fiction murder mystery. The character Nathaniel Hopson undergoes a rearranging of everything he believes is true after one fateful event. The exploration of not only the murder, but Hopson's own beliefs and values makes this a page turner. I thoroughly enjoyed it.

"The Grenadillo Box" made for some truly riveting reading. The authour is a rather well known art and antique expert, and her grasp for the history and social mores of the time (mid 18th century England) was fairly evident and added to the richness and texture of the novel. Also nicely one was the brilliant manner in which she captured the voice of her protagonist, Nathaniel Hopson. Nathaniel
