The Learner-Centred Curriculum by David Nunan
The Learner-Centred Curriculum takes as its starting point what is done by language teachers in their classes. Nunan develops a concept of the negotiated model in which the curriculum is a collaboration between teachers and students. The author looks at the curriculum from a teacher's perspective and reports on what instructors focus on in planning, implementing, and evaluating language

Student-Centred Course Curriculum Development

An alternative approach to curriculum development which indicates a close relationship between curriculum, planning goals, learning objectives, and implementation is the learner-centred approach (Nunan 1988).
