The Life And Adventures Of John Nicol, Mariner by John Nicol

John Nicol (1755-1825) sailed on a number of British ships between 1776 and 1801. His writings were recently rediscovered and edited by Tim Flannery, Director of the South Australian Museum in Adelaide. Especially enjoyable is a chapter on transporting women prisoners from London to Botany Bay, Australia; any one of the women's stories could be the basis of a fascinating book or motion picture.
