New York Times bestselling author Susan Mallery sweeps readers back to California wine country, where love and laughter abound, and a regal visitor rekindles desire in one unsuspecting Marcelli sister. A smart, independent woman with a gorgeous four-year-old son, Mia Marcelli lost her one true love. Four years ago, while working undercover for the CIA, she watched Diego, the father of her unborn child, perish before her very eyes crumbling the world around her. But one morning she awakens

The Marcelli Princess (Marcelli, #5) by Susan Mallery Not a ton of steam in this book, but I thought it was pretty good considering the premise, "wild and crazy Marcelli girl become princess of a fictional country", but I liked the way the story played out. I gained new respect for Mia. IMO Mallery top notch contemp romance writer.
