Unlocking the meaning of Shakespeare's metaphors. A metaphor is a figure of speech in which an object is described by comparing it to something else. For example, in A Midsummer Night's Dream, a rose takes on special meaning as a metaphor for a woman's marital status. A rose plucked and distilled into perfume describes a married woman, while a rose that withers on the stem describes a spinster. Shakespeare also used metaphors to Shakespeare's Metaphors - A list of the greatest metaphors ...
