The Trouble With Fire by Fiona Kidman - Goodreads

The Trouble with Fire might ebb the same Where most people see ordinary, you see extraordinary. Where others believe nothing has happened, you reveal how the earth can be detached and reattached at a slightly altered tilt, in a single instant of a woman's life.

The Trouble with Fire by Fiona Kidman review - The Listener

In Kidman, readers invariably find a very safe pair of hands, and The Trouble with Fire is no exception. The author of dozens of novels, memoirs, short-story collections and poetry anthologies, having won numerous awards as well as wide critical acclaim, Kidman is so reliably good, her writing so adept, acute and deceptively understated, that her fiction isn't a way to avoid real life, but
