To Sin with a Stranger is the first novel in Kathryn Caskie's new series about siblings who must find their way in the world after their father kicks the "sinful" bunch out of their home. I enjoyed this first story, especially Sterling Sinclair, the eldest brother! What a great name for a hero. However, this author has delivered so much more in terms of narrative and plot in previous novels.

Book review: Kathryn Caskie's "To Sin with a Stranger"

The clue's in the genre - 'historical' romance - but To Sin with a Stranger disappoints, falling far short of the standard required of 'historical'.
