To Trust a Thief was just fun! I enjoyed learning more about this strange necklace, family secrets, and ghost stories! Min was a great character, and certainly not a proper lady no matter how hard her aunt tries! There are a few predictable twists along the way, but it's a quick, refreshing read so I didn't mind at all. I was just enjoying the ride!

To Trust a Thief is all about a very flashy necklace that was thought to be just a legend. But then the clues just start piling up and Min knows the necklace must be real. Bryant is also after the necklace for unknown reasons, so he proposes a deal with Min. They each tell the other what they know about the necklace, and then share it when they find it! Of course they don't trust each other.
