Violet Mackerel's Personal Space Violet Mackerel is on a summer holiday at the beach with her sister, Nicola; her brother, Dylan; her mama; and her mama's boyfriend, Vincent. It is nearly the end of the holiday, and Violet is wishing it was still the beginning.

Violet Mackerel's Personal Space by Anna Branford Violet Mackerel's Personal Space by Anna Branford, illustrated by Elanna Allen loved this little early chapter book just as much as the rest of this lovely series. Violet is a character that I just adore visiting with and seeing how she is doing. Finding personal space and the struggle of independence is an important topic. I feel that some children don't get enough independent time

Violet Mackerel's Personal Space is one of these. And what a sad-happy story. Violet's mom has decided to remarry and the whole family will move. That's two sad things for children to deal with but the author, Anna Branford, deals with the sad things in a way that will make the reader feel happy when she finishes the story. That's so nice for children who have to deal with sad things every day.
